ALL RIGHT FOR CLUB TO HAVE LIQUOR, DECISION IN CASE AT MOUNT PLEASANT

Special to The Courier

MOUNT PLEASANT Aug 15—Because he claimed to be merely the steward of a club composed of men who had each contributed $10 to buy a stock of wet goods for consumption after the country went dry the case against Steve Kubiak charged with illegally selling liquor was dismissed by Justice L S Rhodes last night

Kubiak testified that he was only an employe of the club which had laid in a large supply of beer and gin There were 100 members he said and each was to have as much booze as he wanted until the supply was exhausted He admitted though that he had sold drinks to two borough officers The cigar box containing money, he said represented the proceeds from the sale of sandwiches and cigarettes by his son The police testified that they saw cigarettes but there were no sandwiches

Constables Robert Smith and M F McCully were ordered to return the booze which was stored in the lockup after the raid on the club Sunday night August 3

Not satisfied with the outcome of the case borough officials will confer with federal authorities to ascertain if further action can be brought

CITY'S FINE SITUATION FOR MOTOR TRANSPORT INDUCES BIG BAKERY TO LOCATE HERE

Old Presbyterian Parsonage on Peach Street to Be Site of $75,000 Plant.

Connellsville is to shortly have another industry in the form of a large baking plant Notice has been given by the Fayette Baking company of its intention to apply for a charter for a corporation of the above name the character and object of which is the manufacture of buying selling and dealing in bread cakes pies biscuits crackers confectionery and all other bakery products The incorporators are Charles F Kepner Charles A. Thomas and John Baur Jr, all of Pittsburg but it is said considerable local capital has been interested

The location of the plant will be on the site of the old Presbyterian parsonage in West Peach street which is said to have been acquired Approximately $75 000 will be invested in building and equipment it is understood

All details of the plans are not available The plant however will be strictly modern and the capacity will be second only to the large baking plants in the cities Work on the building which will probably be of brick will be started during the summer, with the intention of having the plant ready for operation early in the coming year

According to reliable information Connellsville was selected as the site because of its advantageous location for motor truck delivery The time is here, say men who have made a study of the problem of transportation when dependence must be on the truck for delivery of manufactured products rather than on the railroads, which have of late made it plain that they do not care for shipments in less than carload lots Connellsville is still the center of the coke region in sofar as population is concerned and it is his to which the distributor looks The city has taken on new importance too with the possibility of the mountain region being developed through improvements of the Connellsville to Farmington road

It was the city's ideal location as a distributing center for motor vehicles that induced the Shuster Gormly company to locate its wholesale establishment here Connellsville was given preference over Uniontown it is said mainly for this reason

More and more the motor truck is coming into service for wholesale distribution of merchandise Every day or so trucks come from Pittsburg with consignments for local merchants This method of delivery was inaugurated during the acute freight congestion of last winter but it has not been discontinued and will not be Rather the use of the gasoline propelled vehicles will grow rapidly, is the prediction

The new baking company will depend on the truck for delivery of its product Its field will be the entire southwestern part of the state, it is said.

There seems to be no limit to the capacity of the large motor trucks An example of what loads can be carried was seen yesterday afternoon when one passed through Pittsburg street and Crawford avenue with a huge steam boiler That truck is carrying as much as a flat car remarked a spectator

The ordering of a car load of government food for distribution at Connellsville awaits information from the authorities as to whether the quantities and varieties of food may be indicated when the order is placed or whether the shipment will be as the War Department may prescribe

The receipt at Uniontown of a car load has developed the fact that the car contained some foods for which there is no present demand at that place Sugar flour canned tomatoes corn and other vegetables found ready sale but canned roast and corned beef and other meats were not called for As a result a considerable stock of these varieties is still on hand

That the mayor has authority to order one or more cars is made plain in the following telegram from Congressman S A Kendall received this morning at the mayor's office

You are authorized to order government food by the carload for sale to your citizens payment in 10 days from the zone supply office 21st and Oregon avenue Philadelphia Pa Price list at which food is to be sold will be furnished by the War Department If you desire one or more cars advise me promptly and I will ask the War Department to make shipment

NEW PLAN FOR THE REORGANIZATION OF RAILROADS PROPOSED

By Security Holders Who Would Share All Profits Above Six Per Cent With Employes

WASHINGTON Aug 15—A new plan for the reorganization of the railroads was submitted to the House Interstate Commerce Committee today by Luther M Walter of Chicago chief counsel for the National Association of Owners of Railroad Securities

The plan which was devised by S Davies Warfield of Baltimore president of the association provides a minimum return of six per cent on the capital invested with a division of all surplus over that among the employes The Interstate Commerce Commission would fix rates on a basis which after paying the cost of operation would net the minimum return of six per cent

In presenting the plan Mr Walter sharply challenged the contention of Glenn E Plumb author of the labor plan for tripartite control that property investment accounts of the railroads would not exceed $10 000 000 000 or $12 000 000 000 The total would reach $19 000 000 000 or $20 000 000 000 Walter said at the same time expressing the confident belief that the courts would uphold substantially this valuation

DISMISSAL OF FOUR UNIONTOWN POLICE OFFICERS DEMANDED

Unwarranted Action Charged in the Arrest of John Lynch, Prominent Citizen, at Laurel Club Dance.

Dismissal of Chief of Police John C. Eckert, Uniontown, together with Sergeant George Nelson and Patrolmen George Ashman and H. L. McCauley for "gross misconduct and oppression" was asked by members of the Laurel club, a prominent social organization at a meeting Wednesday evening. The meeting was called to protest and take action against the alleged illegal and unwarranted arrest of John Lynch during the progress of a dance given Tuesday evening at the Laurel club by Miss Louise Lynch to members of the Uniontown younger set.

Charges against Chief Eckert and the three other policemen were officially filed by a committee from the Laurel club coposed of R W. Dawson, A. C. Hagan and D B. Stauft. Mayor William H. Smart was served with a notice by the same committee of the filing of the charges and asked that "pending investigation by council said officers be suspended."

The arrest of Mr. Lynch occurred shortly after 2 o'clock Wednesday morning upon the complaint of Rody Maher, night clerk at the Exchange hotel, who claimed that the orchestra music was disturbing the guests of the hotel. Previously during the evening Patrolmen Ashman and McCauley went twice to the Laurel club rooms and repeated the complaint of the Exchange hotel management. On the third visit they placed Mr. Lynch under arrest. He accompanied the officers to the police station and under protest posted a forfeit of $25 with Sergeant George Nelson. The forfeit was returned later in the day by Mayor Smart.

Mayor Smart last evening issued a statement to the effect that the vigorous complaints made by a committee from the Laurel club were improperly brought and that no action would be taken pending the filing of a "proper petition."

POOR WOMAN MAKES SACRIFICE

"For years I have doctored for indigestion and severe bloating with gas, all my money had gone for doctors and medicine which did me no good. I had lost all faith in medicines and as I have to work hard for the few dollars I earn, was afraid to risk any more money. A year ago my neighbor told me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I have found it to be the best medicine in the world and am glad I made the sacrifice." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. A. A. Clarke and druggists everywhere.—Adv

JURY AWARDS SIX CENTS TO FORD IN TRIBUNE LIBEL SUIT

Both Sides Claim Verdict Is a Victory; Ballots.

By Associated Press

MOUNT CLEMENS, MICH., Aug. 15.—A jury last night awarded Henry Ford six cents damages against the Chicago Tribune for calling him an anarchist.

Mr. Ford was not in court. The Tribune was represented by Capt. Joseph Medill Patterson, one of the publishers.

Orvy Hulety, foreman of the jury said that they took "nine ballots that I can remember." The first, according to Leonard Measel, another juror, standing 8 to 4 in favor of awarding Mr. Ford some damages.

"Does the award of 6 cents about express the feeling of the jury as to the case?" a reporter asked Mr. Hulett.

"It just about does. That expresses our judgment."

Attorney Alfred J. Murphy, for Mr Ford, said:

"The important issue in this case has been determined favorably to the plaintiff. He has been vindicated

"Money damages were entirely subordinate and were not sought by Mr Ford He stands not only vindicated, but his attitude as an American citizen has been justified after a trial which raised every issue against him which ingenuity and research could present His friends are entirely satisfied."

Weymouth Kirkland of counsel for The Tribune, said:

"We consider it a victory, for the reason that Attorney Alfred Lucking, in closing for Mr. Ford, stated that anything less than substantial damages would be a defeat for his client."

FRIDAY EVENING, AUG. 15, 1919.

NOT THE TIME FOR FURTHER SACRIFICE.

Several suggestions as means of affecting a reduction in the cost of living have been recently brought into more or less public notice but each of them finds the great mass of consumers unresponsive to the advice given

In order of appearance in the press the suggestion of the Federal Reserve Board to work and save is the first. This was followed shortly by the recommendation of Julius H Barnes, director of the United States Grain Corporation that the 12 000 000 housewives of America return to war time economy in the management of their family tables Within the past few days the president of the National Association of Shoe Retailers comes to the rescue of [illegible] family providers with the suggestion that people wear fewer pairs of shoes

That these suggestions for the cure of domestic economic ills are not being received with favor is because of the fact that none of them or even all in combination, reach the root of the disease and hence will do no more than provide partial or temporary relief The injunction to work and to save is always timely and will be given a certain degree of consideration by a number of people but the quest for housewives to pare and skimp in provisioning their families as they were obliged to do in war time is not calculated to find very ready acceptance so long as present conditions prevail Thus no surprise is occasioned by the emphatic refusal of householders to resort to war time saving while the pernicious business of profiteering in food stuffs is permitted by the government to continue

The temper of housewives generally is accurately reflected in statements issued by the leaders of the most prominent women's organizations in the country Mrs A V Harmon head of the National Woman party in eastern Pennsylvania presents the following concise expression of opinion

"The suggestion to housewives that they economize in the management of their tables in order to bring relief from the condition of the intolerable prices asked for food we have to eat is secondary People could doubtless economize further by paying more attention to the waste in their garbage cans, but such a suggestion does not strike at the root of the evil Government action is what is needed. If quick and aggressive action is taken by our public officials against those who hoard food the situation will be greatly simplified Women in America have learned to be economical using all sorts of things they never thought of using before the war The big thing that is needed is some action which will once available stocks upon the market so that prices will be reduced People would be a great deal better off if there were no storehouses if they are to be used to hoard food until it becomes unfit for use and has to be thrown away

The putting of all food in storage on the active market and the consequent decline in price would stimulate the farmer to greater production because of the increased return to him War-time conditions were pretty hard and many sacrifices were made which the public will not know of The time for government action has now come —not the time for further sacrifice."

A somewhat similar point of view of the situation is taken by Mrs Max Margolis president of the Council of Jewish Women who says

The suggestion is utterly beside the point We have ample food supplies in the country, and the thing to do is not to ask the housewives to economize further but to get our public officials to act in bringing the hoarded supplies onto the market One or two criminal prosecutions would be excellent things to teach a lesson to profiteers who hoard food until it rots and has to be thrown away rather than offer it to people who need it to live.

The average family is being run on about as economical basis as it can be run The prohibitive price of eggs meat and other foodstuffs have made people cut to the minimum the quantities they eat The average family cannot further reduce the portions it consumes During the war we made sacrifices for a purpose Now we are making them for no cause at all

The "plain people" have made their share of sacrifice It is now the solemn duty and obligation of the government to remove the need of further rigid self-denial in the things that are essential to the maintenance of human existence and bodily comfort

SCHOOL MEDICAL INSPECTIONS.

The wisdom of making medical examination of school children is never so forcibly demonstrated as when statistics are published showing the results of such examinations An instance is conveniently at hand in the report of the medical examiner of the schools of Altoona In some respects this may represent unusual conditions but for purposes of illustrating the need of an inquiry into the physical status of school children nothing better is at present available

Out of 6 779 children examined 5 834 or 85 per cent, showed physical defects of some degree Decayed teeth was one of the defects of 4 499 of the children while 2 989 had never learned the use of a tooth brush Thirteen hundred and eighty four children had diseased tonsils and 894 had defects of vision

In the large majority of cases it was found that the degree of defects was such that they would yield to timely and proper treatment and thus prevent permanent impairment of the child's health These examinations as is the experience in all schools revealed physical deficiencies or a tendency toward certain disease which would perhaps not otherwise have been discovered until too late If parents would profit by the results of the examinations which they are not always ready or willing to do, they will do much to insure the future health of their children increase their usefulness as citizens and add to their happiness and that of coming generations

The objection to medical inspection which happily is less general than when first proposed has never had any sound basis It has arisen from prejudice or ignorance of the scope and intention of the plan Now that it has become more apparent that it is serving a splendid purpose and is becoming essential to the proper safeguarding of the health of school children wise parents will supplement the work of the medical examiners by placing their children under the care of practioners for treatment with a view to remedying the defects

AN OLD MAN DISCUSSES MARRIED LIFE

Lord we've had our little wrangles an we've had our little bouts There's many a time I reckon that we've been on the outs
My tongue's a trifle hasty an my temper's apt to fly
An Mother let me tell you has a sting in her reply
But I couldn't live without her an it's plain as plain can be
That in fair or sunny weather mother needs a man like me

I've banged a door an muttered angry words beneath my breath
For at times when she was scoldin mother's plagued me most to death
But we've always laughed it over when we'd both cooled down a bit
An we never had a difference but a smile would settle it.
An if such a thing could happen we could share life's joys an tears
An live right on together for another thousand years

Some men give up too easy in the game o married life
They haven't got the courage to be worthy of a wife
An I've seen a lot o women that have made their lives a mess
Coz they couldn't bear the burdens that are mixed with happiness
So long as folks are human they'll have many faults that jar
An the way to live with people is to take them as they are

We've been forty years together good an bad an rain an shine I've forgotten mother's faults now an she never mentions mine
In the days when sorrow struck us in we shared a common woe
We just leaned upon each other an our weakness didn't show
An I learned how much I need her an how tender she can be An through it maybe mother can of early autumn raiment for women misses and children We want you to inspect the distinctive styles that are coming in to our stores daily from the eastern markets Our purchases for autumn are completed and while you hear a general complaint of scarcity of goods of staple popular kinds, you will not see much evidence of it in our stores We have been very fortunate in securing medium stocks of most of the popular autumn styles What we are going to do when they are closed out is a question We merely give you this information and take this occasion to advise that you buy early It is going to be a season of the "early bird catching the worm" It would take too much space to specify the different kinds of materials we have for women's misses and children's autumn clothing A visit to our stores, an inspection would be more satisfactory to you and to us

Your attention is also called to our stock of early autumn shoes for women, misses and children Goods that we purchased several months ago are now coming in There is no noticeable change in styles—we are offering the finest colored high tops with all the different styles of vamps and shapes There is a very complete line of good strong sensible school shoes for misses and girls There is just about what you want in every line, and you will find the prices very reasonable

THE "BLUES"

Acid-Stomach

Millions of people who worry, are despondent, have spells of mental depression, feel blue and are often melancholy, believe that these conditions are due to outside influences over which they have little or no control. Nearly always, however, they can be traced to an internal source—acid-stomach. Nor is it to be wondered at. Acid-stomach, beginning with such well defined symptoms as indigestion belching, heartburn, bloat, etc., will, if not checked, in time affect to some degree or other all the vital organs. The nervous system becomes deranged. Digestion suffers. The blood is impoverished. Health and strength are undermined. The victim of acid-stomach, although he may not know the cause of his ailments, feels his hope, courage, ambition and energy slipping. And truly life is dear—not worth much to the man or woman who has acid-stomach!

Get rid of it! Don't let acid-stomach hold you back, wreck your health, make your days miserable, make you a victim of the "blues" and gloomy thoughts! There is a marvelous modern remedy called EATONIC that brings, oh! such quick relief from your stomach miseries—sets your stomach to rights—makes it strong, cool, sweet and comfortable. Helps you get back your strength, vigor, vitality, enthusiasm and good cheer. So many thousands upon thousands of sufferers have used EATONIC with such marvelously helpful results that we are sure you will feel the same way if you will just give it a trial. Get a big 50 cent box of EATONIC—the good tasting tablets that you eat like a bit of candy—from your druggist today. He will return your money if results are not even more than you expect.

Lazy Life During Hot Months Causes Lazy Liver

AT no other time is the girl so constant a companion of her mother as when she is emerging into womanhood. There are so many questions to ask; so much she needs to know.

And school is over. Hers is now a lazy, inactive, carefree life. No wonder she is not always as lively and as well as she should be at her age. Let the mother inquire if the bowels are functioning properly, for there lies the basis of good and poor health.

It will usually be found that a laxative is needed, and none will give safer and quicker relief than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin which is just a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. Taken tonight, it acts freely and pleasantly in the morning. The head is again clear, the body light. There is renewed interest in life.

A dose of Syrup Pepsin now and then is almost a necessity for everyone in hot weather. A bottle can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter being the family size, or a free trial bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

WRITES FROM CANADA TO GET VICTORY BUTTON; SAW ITEM ABOUT IT IN COURIER

Writing from Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, to W. H. May, demobilization secretary at the Baltimore & Ohio railroad Y. M. C. A., to request that a victory button be secured for him, Robert S. Kerr, formerly of Connellsville, says he saw it in The Courier that Mr. May was assisting in securing badges for discharged soldiers. His letter follows:

"Just a few lines to let you know I saw the ad in The Courier which stated every soldier should be wearing a victory button. Well I am up here now and every discharged soldier has a button (Canadian) and some of them have already asked me where is mine. You may remember recording my discharge in Uniontown.

"I am entitled to a silver button, also a battle clasp with three stars.

ROBERT S. KERR

"Late of Company L, 319th Infantry."

Which is just another evidence of The Courier's wide circulation. A lot of people in a wide variety of places, far and near, derive pleasure and benefit from things they "see in The Courier."

SPLENDID WAY TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

There is perhaps no one thing that so plainly shows the passing of our youth as the horrible tendency to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30 years. However young our faces may appear, the sagging, flabby figure and forty inch waist "gives us away."

The cause of this over stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the excess fatty tissue. Fat people will be pleased to learn of a simple home method that is wonderfully efficient in reducing weight, quickly and easily without a starving diet, violent massage or strenuous exercise. Go to any drug store and get a box of Phynola; take five grains after each meal and at bed time. This treatment will often give quick relief from overburdening fat. Phynola taken at meal time assists the stomach in giving you the benefit of the food you eat, at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. By this method many have reduced their weight a pound a day and there is no flabbiness left. C. Roy Hetzel, Laughrey Drug Co. A. A. Clarke can supply you with the genuine Phynola at a small cost.—Adv.

Asserts New Discovery Brings Blessed Relief To Rose and Hay Fever Sufferers

Can Make It Yourself At Home At Trifling Expense

In spite of all the doubters and scoffers, a man in Kentucky, who changed his annoying and distressing hay fever into less than a mild cold, claims most emphatically that if taken in time hay fever can be conquered or at least made so harmless that it is not even bothersome.

He gave his discovery to scores of other sufferers with the most remarkable results and has recently been prevailed upon to dispense it through pharmacists to all hay fever sufferers who still have faith that nature has provided an effective remedy for this common yet miserable disease.

And best of all this remedy costs almost nothing. Get a one ounce bottle of Mentholized Arcine at any drug store, pour the contents into a pint bottle and fill the pint bottle with water that has been boiled.

Then gargle as directed and twice daily snuff or spray each nostril thoroughly.

That's all there is to it; so simple that a lot of people will say that it can't do the work; but oftentimes simple natural remedies are the best as you will find after using.

If you will make up a pint and use it for a week or ten days you need not be surprised if your unwelcome yearly visitor fails to appear.

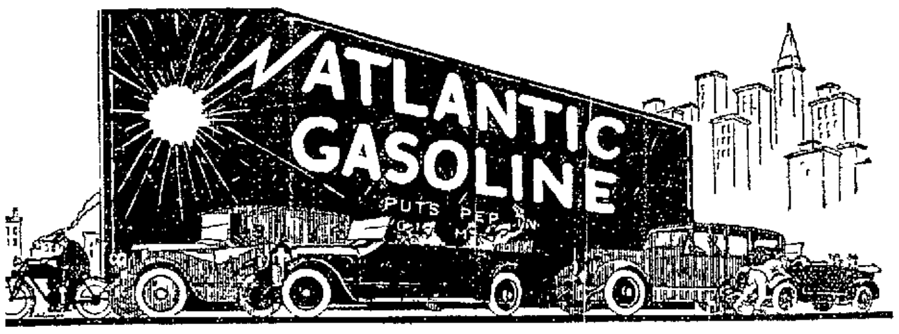
THE BORDER LEGION —The biggest action drama of the year with Blanche Bates and Hobart Bosworth in splendid roles is being shown today In her brilliant debut on the screen Miss Bate s performance in achievements on the speaking stage not excepting even her portrayal in The Girl of the Golden West her first Belasco success the heart throbbing incidents of which have [illegible] in the turning si uations of her first screen triumph Remarkably finished too is the acting of Hobart Bosworth Miss Bates is seen in the role of Joan Randall a daring girl of the west who makes her home in a mining camp in the Rockies She is engaged to wed Jim Cleeve a shiftless prospector When a week passes and Jim fails to return following a quarrel Joan starts out in search of him On the way she falls into the hands of Jack Kells leader of the outlaw border legion He draws Joan to his shack to hold her for ransom That night Joan tries to escape and Kells grapples with her In the scrimmage Kells is shot and as Joan is about to flee he pleads with her to remain and [illegible] What happens thereafter brings about a climax thrilling and exciting as it is unusual

THE SOISSON.

A MARRIAGE FOR CONVENIENCE —In which Catherine Calvert appears in the role of Natalie Rand who determines to avenge a wrong as her father would have done is an interesting feature today Her sister Barbara to escape the advances of an intoxicated man jumps from the window of a cliff inn The shock of her fall blinds her Her assailant is unknown to Barbara The girl s mother dies after the incident Natalie swears to avenge her mother and sister In order to pay the expenses of an operation on Barbara s eyesight Natalie sacrifices her love for Ned Gardiner and marries Oliver Landis, wealthy and her senior in years Landis is the man responsible for Barbara s injuries Natalie of course is not aware of this and Landis does not know that the girl he has wronged is his wife s sister He learns this however through a photograph and fears Natalie s oath of vengeance and dreads exposure Barbara returns home unexpectedly her sight restored and much to his horror Landis learns of this incident They meet and to denounce Landis as her assailant Natalie attempts to shoot her husband with her father s pistol—but he secures it from her and commits suicide Miss Calvert is supported by a splendid cast.



ATLANTIC GASOLINE
PUTS PEP IN YOUR MOTOR

Less Frequent Carbureter Adjustments When You Use Atlantic

ATLANTIC GASOLINE is uniform. It has a range of performance that equalizes the humid air of the lowlands; the cold, dry air of the higher altitudes; the sultry atmosphere of summer, and the chisel-y blasts of winter.

Once your carbureter is set for the season, you need not change it The range of Atlantic will more than take care of the varying driving conditions

And this is not merely a figment of the imagination, either. Atlantic Gasoline actually does compensate for the irregularities of climate and temperature.

Use Atlantic Gasoline and banish the carbureter-nuisance Use it all season and see

ORATORY WILL FLOOD COUNTRY VIA PHONOGRAPH

Both Parties to Spread Doctrines By Distributing Speech Records.

MANY MACHINES IN U. S.

Two Manufacturers Alone Have More Than 2,000,000 Phonographs in Use So They Will Play Big Part in the Coming Presidential Campaign.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Phonographs will be used by both the Republican and Democratic parties in the approaching presidential campaign, it is announced, the plan embracing a program which will permit the residents of small towns and remote hamlets to hear the speeches of eminent orators at the same time that the records are released in the large cities.

The phonographic campaign will be opened September 1, when records containing utterances by Attorney General Palmer, speaking for the Democrats, and others registering the speech of United States Senator Lodge, voicing the sentiments of the Republicans, will be released. These speeches will be reproduced at clubs, societies, headquarters, churches, noonday meetings and in the homes of the party workers.

Following the release of the speeches of Attorney General Palmer and Senator Lodge, other records will be distributed monthly and it is expected that the meeting places and homes throughout the country will fairly echo and re-echo with the words of the orators as conveyed by means of talking machines. The extent of the part which phonographs may play in the campaign can be estimated by the statement that two manufacturers of the machines are known to have more than 2,000,000 phonographs in use in the United States.

Among the speakers scheduled for phonographic oratory by the Democratic National Committee are President Wilson, Secretary of War Baker, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and William J. Bryan.

Former President Taft, Major General Wood, Elihu Root, Chauncey M. Depew and United States Senators Johnson and Borah are on the list of speakers chosen for talking-machine oratory by the Republican National Committee.

"Well, Captain Laynton," said Wallen, "your reference to our meeting being a rum one only leaves me a little more up in the air. I can understand, of course, that you might have heard of the Upolo being missing—or reported lost; but I can't understand how you knew I was on her—or, knowing that, what interest you could have in me."

Captain Laynton laughed a little in a constrained way.

"Captain Laynton—Mark Laynton."

"I didn't know anything about the bark's loss until I put in here yesterday and heard there was a survivor from her on the other side of the island—but I knew about you fast enough."

He paused, shot a swift, restless glance at Wallen, then began to pace, three steps one way, three steps the other, up and down the narrow cabin.

"D——n it, man!" he said abruptly. "I've got bad news for you. Your father's dead!"

For a moment Wallen neither moved nor spoke. It was difficult to grasp the full significance of the words. His father—dead!

What did this thin-faced man, with the little black eyes that always refused to meet one's own, who was tramping nervously now up and down a little cabin on a rusty tramp steamer here in the Java sea, at the other end of the world, know of his father, who never left the four walls of that lonely gray stone house in California?

"What do you know about my father?"—he found himself speaking in a quiet voice.

Captain Laynton stopped impulsively in front of his table, pulled the drawer open, took out a sheet of paper and handed it to Wallen.

"You'll get the drift of this yourself, I guess," he ventured.

Wallen stared at the paper, at first with curious bewilderment—and then, with the sudden flash of comprehension, he was on his feet. It was a list of the ports of call scheduled for the ill-fated Upolo on her last voyage—ports of call that she had never made.

"What does this mean?" he demanded in a low voice. "How did you come by this?"

"Your father gave it to me," the captain answered. "And now, if you'll just listen for a minute, I'll give you the whole story, and you'll see for yourself. First I might as well tell you, though, that I own this ship. Well, I was in Honolulu—light, you understand—when your father came aboard one evening and offered to charter me for a three months' cruise down here. He made the price right, paid the money down in advance, and I closed with him.

"He gave me the list of ports, and said his son was on a trading bark called the Upolo, and that he wanted to get track of him as soon as possible, and offered an extra bonus for all hands if we made a quick job of it. That's all I know about the reason for the cruise. Well, to cut a long story short, we started away, and were down just south of the line when the accident happened.

"Your father was alone down in his cabin. We heard a shot, rushed below, and, thinking it strange that he didn't show up in the excitement, called to him—but got no answer. Well, we burst in his cabin door and found him dead across the bunk."

"You mean," said Wallen through tight lips, "that he committed suicide?"

"No. Wait!" Captain Laynton shook his head. "It wasn't that. God knows how it happened! The thing went off—that's all. He was cleaning one of those patent automatic pistols.

"There was a bottle of oil, a cleaning rag, and a wire swabbing brush on the floor. And"—Laynton poured himself another glass from the bottle, gulped it down, and wiped his lips with the back of his hand—"well, I'm trying to give it to you in a few words—we buried him at sea of course."

Wallen turned his back and stared out of one of the forward portholes down onto the dirty foredeck. Was the man lying? Was he telling the truth? That his father had chartered the Monleigh and sailed with her—yes.

But that his death was accidental—the background of his father's life—the recent attempt upon his own life! His brain was working in flashes. This man Laynton repelled him.

An accident—never! There was no room for doubt—"never go to the East"—it was not an accident—his father had been murdered on this ship. And then suddenly he swallowed hard.

It was to save him that his father had chartered the Monleigh and come East; for, according to that list of ports, his father somehow had been in touch with his movements, somehow had known the danger he was in, and, trying to avert it, had been murdered himself.

A cold, merciless passion swept upon him. Someone on this ship was the murderer. Was it this man here? What was at the bottom of it all? It was a long arm of vengeance that reached to that gray stone house in California, that reached to Singapore, to this ship, to that sweltering, plague-stricken bark where, strangely enough, he alone had lived!

And now the score was a very heavy one to pay—his father's life! Well—his eyes narrowed—he would pay it!

"Did my father bring a native servant with him—a man named Gunga?" he asked dispassionately.

"No," the other replied. "He was alone."

Wallen nodded. "What else is there to tell me?"

"Not much—but what you can guess," Laynton said. "I ran down through the Makassar strait and made for the nearest port on that list—Pobi here. Your father had paid me for the three months, and if I say it myself, when I make a bargain I stick to it. If I could find you inside the three months I was going to do it.

"I don't know what your father was so anxious about, though I understood, of course, that he chartered me because out here, with you touching at those trading stations, he couldn't reach you by mail or cable; but I made sure it was something mighty important and I thought you'd know what it was."

It was almost an interrogation, put naturally, nonchalantly enough—save for a trace of eagerness in the man's tones that was not entirely disguised.

"I haven't the slightest idea," said Wallen smoothly.

"You haven't?" Laynton's eyes for once fixed steadfastly. "Well, that's queer! A man don't go to the expense of chartering a ship like this without a pretty good reason, and—"

"I dare say my father knew," suggested Wallen quietly. Then briskly: "The question now is: What are you going to do, captain?"

"Why?" said Captain Laynton. "I thought I'd made that plain enough. When I make a contract I keep it. It's up to you, Mr. Wallen. There's still say, a matter of two months before that charter expires, and the Monleigh's yours until it does—in your father's place. That's square, isn't it?"

Wallen hesitated thoughtfully.

On the face of it it was both square and honorable. He began to wonder if he had misjudged the man.

And yet, instinctively, in spite of that, there seemed something specious even in the honesty that appeared to underlie the other's motives. He had reason enough to distrust every soul on board a ship where he was morally certain his father had been murdered! Two months—if he accepted the captain's offer. If he had only something to work on!

Something! Yes, he had something. Drink-House Sam of Singapore!

Captain Laynton spoke again:

"Look here!" he said in almost hurt tones. "I can't make you any fairer proposition than that. Can I?"

"No," said Wallen instantly, his mind made up. "And I'll accept your offer, captain, and thank you heartily for it."

IF THIN AND NERVOUS, TRY PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

When one stops to consider the host of thin people who are searching continually for some method by which they may increase their flesh to normal proportions by the filling out of ugly hollows, the rounding off of protruding angles with the attendant bloom of health and attractiveness, it is no wonder that many and varied suggestions along this line appear from time to time in public print.

While excessive thinness might be attributable to various and subtle causes in different individuals it is a well-known fact that the lack of sufficient phosphorous in the human system is very largely responsible for this condition. Experiments on humans and animals by many scientists have demonstrated beyond question of doubt that a body deficient in phosphorous becomes nervous, sickly and thin. A noted author and professor in his book, "Chemistry and Food Nutrition," published in 1918, says: "* * * that the amount of phosphorous required for the normal nutrition of man is seriously underestimated in many of our standard text books."

It seems to be well established that this deficiency in phosphorous may now be met by the use of an organic phosphate known throughout English speaking countries as Bitro-Phosphate. Through the assimilation of this phosphate by the nerve tissue the phosphoric content when absorbed in the amount normally required by nature soon produces a welcome change in our body and mind. Nerve tension disappears, vigor and strength replace weakness and lack of energy, and the whole body soon loses its ugly hollows and abrupt angles, becoming enveloped in a glow of perfect health and beauty and the will and strength to be up and doing. It is sold by the Connellsville Drug Co., and all good druggists.

CAUTION:—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.—Adv.

Why B-Zol gives 30% more mileage and no carbon trouble

THAT B-Zol gives 30% more mileage, more power and absolute freedom from carbon trouble and engine "knocking" is a tested fact! Here are the principal reasons:

1.— Each gallon of B-Zol contains 20% more heat units than a gallon of gasoline, and its nature is such that a higher percentage of each gallon is consumed—which means less waste.

2.— B-Zol gives no carbon trouble and no "knocking" at low or high speed because it can be run with excess air and because the compression and ignition are such as to make a smoother explosion—

3.— Less lubricating oil is required when B-Zol is used because B-Zol does not condense and mix with the cylinder oil, as does gasoline.

THIS COAL MINER SIDESTEPT THE SURGEON'S BLADE

Nerv-Worth Got in Its Work and Forestalled the Operation.

New and striking evidence of Nerv-Worth's power to hold off the knife. Given a few days ago to Uniontown's Nerv-Worth druggist:

Wade H. Guyton:—I am a coal miner and the coal dust and dampness had completely knocked me out. I was very nervous. Poor appetite and digestion. My nerve force too low to digest and assimilate my food to give me strength. Badly bloated with gas and afraid to lie down at night. I was in a hospital for over a week, the doctors claiming I had appendicitis, but an operation was postponed.

I purchased one bottle of Nerv-Worth and took it as directed. Now I can eat anything I want, when I want it and digest it. My stomach trouble all gone and have gained my normal strength and vigor. Nerv-Worth proved the right thing in my case and I cheerfully recommend it.

COMMITTEE WILL SEEK ACTION ON FARMINGTON ROAD

In a telephone conversation during the meeting with G. W. Campbell, who was chosen chairman of the meeting, County Commissioner George P. Hoover said the county a year ago had offered to build half the road if [illegible] would assume the cost of the [illegible]. No reply, he said, had [illegible] ceived from Harrisburg. Realizing that it might be delayed for a year or two if there be a county-state arrangement those at the meeting were anxious that an effort be made to have the state alone undertake the work.

The consensus of opinion was that the aid of Senator Crow and State Treasurer Kephart should be enlisted in the cause.

The people of the Indian Head community, it was reported at the meeting, have put into circulation a petition praying for the improvement of the road from Normalville to Jones Mill by way of Indian Head and Champion. This was not taken seriously.

It was agreed that a demonstration of citizens of the whole community in favor of the road, which was proposed by S. B. Dull, would have great moral effect as emphasizing the desire of the people that it be improved and improved with the least possible delay. Mr. Dull reiterated the statement that if such a meeting be called upwards of 200 persons from the mountains would be here to help the cause along.

Attending the meeting were S. B. Dull, J. Fred. Kurtz, J. L. Evans, George B. Freed, R. C. Hollister, George W. Campbell, E. Dunn, Dr. A. J. Colborn, C. W. Downs, J. L. Stader, G. E. Albrecht and J. S. Miller.

TANLAC BREAKS WORLD'S RECORDS

Four years ago few people had ever heard of Tanlac. Today it unquestionably has the largest sale of any medicine in the world, and is a household word everywhere.

Over 12,500,000 bottles of Tanlac have been sold in this country alone. If laid out end to end they would make a column 13,333,333 times higher than the Woolworth Building in New York city, the tallest building in the world.

Tanlac's unprecedented success and rapidly growing demand is based on merit and merit alone. Thousands of people have testified to the benefits derived from this celebrated tonic, stomach appetizer and system purifier in all cases of derangements of the stomach, liver and kidneys. Tanlac is the greatest achievement of modern pharmaceutical science. It is sold by Beighley's Pharmacy, Connellsville Drug Store and Fred Harmening.—Adv.
